Dear Governor Almond:

I am sorry that your busy schedule during your recent tour of Northern Virginia did not permit time for us to show you the new Central Intelligence Agency building now under construction at Langley, Virginia. I understand, however, that you did have an opportunity to fly over it and to see the progress which is being made.

I hope that it will be possible at some future time for you to have a closer look; in the meantime, if you have any questions at all as to our plans and progress I would be honored to have someone brief you at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Allen Dulles

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable J. Lindsay Almond, Jr.
Governor of Virginia
Richmond, Virginia
